

A Rising Man

by Abir Mukherjee Relocating to Calcutta to head a new police force after traumatizing World War I experiences, a former Scotland Yard detective is caught up in a high-profile murder investigation that threatens to destabilize a city already struggling with political insurgency.

The Twelve Lives of Samuel Hawley

by Hannah Tinti

A once-professional killer protects his daughter from the legacy of his criminal past, an effort that is challenged by his daughter's struggles with the death of her mother and the reckoning of old enemies

She Rides Shotgun

by Jordan Harper

Fresh out of jail, Nate thrusts his 11-year-old daughter into a world of robbery and violence in an effort to keep her safe from the prison gang that has put a bounty on his head and murdered her mother.

Penance

by Kanae Minato

Tricked into separating from Emili by a mysterious stranger, Sae, Maki, Akiko and Yuko must deal with their friend's murder, their guilt, and a wronged mother who vows revenge on the surviving girls.

Mrs. Sherlock Holmes : The True Story of New York City's Greatest Female Detective and the 1917 Missing Girl Case that Captivated a Nation

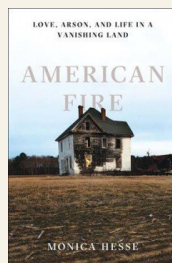

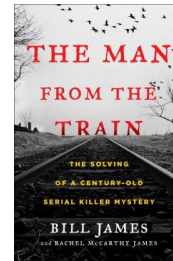

by Brad Ricca

This is the shocking and amazing true story of the first female U.S. District Attorney and traveling detective who found missing 18-year-old Ruth Cruger when the entire NYPD had given up.

The Man From the Train : the Solving of a Century-Old Serial Killer mystery

by Bill James

A celebrated baseball statistician uses his analytic skills and interesting sleuthing techniques to uncover the culprit in a 100 year-old cold case involving a spate of axe bludgeoning deaths across the country, from Iowa to Louisiana.

American Fire

by Monica Hesse

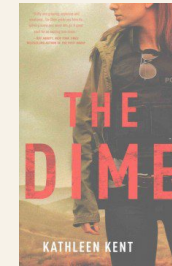

The Washington Post reporter and author of Girl in the Blue Coat documents the trial of a man who was charged with dozens of counts of arson in rural Virginia county.

LOVETTSTVILLE LIBRARY

12 N. Light St. | Lovettsville, VA 20180
(540) 822-5824 | library.loudoun.gov

The Edgar Award Nominees for 2018

The Dime

by Kathleen Kent

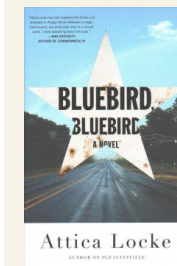

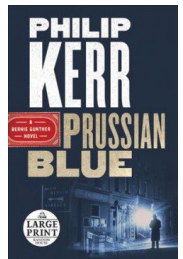

A woman from a family of take-no-prisoners police detectives relocates from Brooklyn to Dallas, where she tackles adversaries ranging from drug cartels to difficult vagrants before a first major investigation is challenged by unruly subordinates, a stalker, a criminal organization and an unsupportive girlfriend.

Prussian Blue

by Philip Kerr

Hiding on the French Riviera when his cover is blown, Bernie Gunther finds himself in a cat-and-mouse game with an old and dangerous enemy before fleeing to Berlin, where he places his survival in the hands of dubious former allies.

Bluebird, Bluebird : A Novel

by Attica Locke

Forced by duty to return to his racially divided East Texas hometown, an African-American Texas Ranger risks his job and reputation to investigate a highly charged double murder case involving a black Chicago lawyer and a local white woman.

Dark Chapter

by Winnie M. Li

When a hike through Belfast's Glen Forest Park results a brutal assault, Vivan Tan struggles to recapture the woman she wanted to be while dealing with the dehumanizing culture and judicial system.

Lola

by Melissa Scrivner Love

Hiding her role as the true leader of a small gang in South Central Los Angeles, Lola pretends to be the submissive girlfriend of the gang's purported boss while her intelligence and leadership are increasingly tested by high-stakes betrayals and escalating violence between rival drug cartels.

Tornado Weather

Tornado Weather

by Deborah Elaine Kennedy
When a disabled five-year-old goes missing while wheeling herself the short distance between her school bus and home, small-town secrets and suspicions collide as the pieces of what is known are put together.

Idaho

by Emily Ruskovich

Against the backdrop of a rugged landscape, the complicated relationship between Ann and Wade is told from multiple perspectives and beginning in the aftermath of Wade's first wife's imprisonment for a violent murder.

In Farleigh Field

by Rhys Bowen

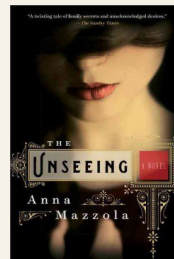

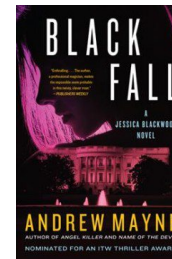

When a parachuter falls to his death on the estate of Lord Westerham and his five daughters, MI5 operative and family friend Ben Cresswell is tasked with investigating. At the same time, one of Lord Westerham's daughters, whom Ben secretly loves, takes a secret job at Bletchley Park.

Black Fall : A Jessica Blackwood Novel

by Andrew Mayne

An FBI agent and an illusionist, Jessica Blackwood finds her very different investigations converging, leading her to confront something darker and more powerful than anyone expected—the Warlock.

The Unseeing

by Anna Mazzola

In 1837, Sarah Gale is sentenced to hang for her alleged role in the dismemberment of a woman, and her lawyer, Edmund Fleetwood. Although she professes her innocence, the line between confessor and penitent starts to blur, and one cannot be sure if she is a victim or a murderer.

Killers of the Flower Moon

by David Grann

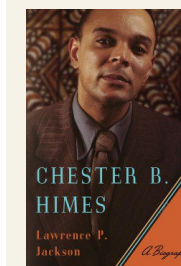

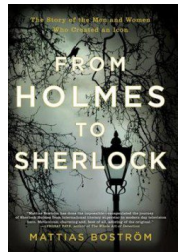

A true account of the early 20th-century murders of dozens of wealthy Osage and law-enforcement officials chronicles the role of a fledgling FBI.

From Holmes to Sherlock : the Story of the Men and Women Who Created an Icon

by Mattias Boström

From a young Arthur Conan Doyle sitting in a Scottish lecture hall taking notes on his medical professor's powers of observation to the pair of modern-day fans who brainstormed the idea behind the TV sensation Sherlo, the narrative follows the men and women who have created and perpetuated the myth of Sherlock Holmes.

Chester B. Himes : A Biography

by Lawrence Patrick Jackson Explores Himes' middle-class origins, imprisonment, creative experiences during World War II, and eventual escape to Europe, where he became famous for his Harlem detective series and its themes of sexuality, racism, and social injustice.

Arthur and Sherlock : Conan Doyle and the creation of Holmes

by Michael Sims

Filled with details that will surprise even the most knowledgeable Sherlockian, this book is a literary genesis story for detective fans everywhere.

